New Members: Garry Gibbs, Jackie Stewart, Ann Thrift

Announcements:

- Dave Hackenberg opened the meeting by announcing that Irv Salzberg is offering four speaker sets for free. (No takers)
- There is no additional information on the order status of the new classroom computers. So, the schedule of classes to start in September is iffy.
- Additional classroom assistant volunteers are needed. Jackie Stewart agreed to sign up.
- Genevieve Clemens was introduced as the new instructor for Computers 1 and 2. Genevieve shared her experience as a librarian and teacher.
- Dave Hackenberg asked for volunteers to help develop a presentation on Artificial Intelligence (AI) for the next meeting. Irv Salzberg offered to help.

Presentations:

- Dave Hackenberg demonstrated many features of the PowerPoint application.
- A PowerPoint video of the garden tour of Crofton Village Garden Club was presented. The presentation was prepared by Doris Smith who explained how it was developed.

Open Discussion:

- Following the presentations there was a lot of open discussion of the many features of PowerPoint and how they were used.
- Dale grant inquired about a previous request for him to provide a short presentation on genealogy. A 15-minute presentation was suggested. No date was set.

Future Meetings: The next meeting will be at the Center on Thursday, August 3. Dave Hackenberg and Irv Salzberg plan to give a presentation AI.
