BOWIE SENIORS COMPUTER CLUB

MEETING MINUTES FOR JAN 7, 2016

Carl Bulger called the meeting to order at 12:30 pm and announced some giveaways (including a printer, a box of stuff cords, transformers, mouse etc).

Dan Lee gave a detailed presentation with audience participation, on dealing with email spam. Various attendees advised of their preferences and recommendations.

An attendee announced that she has an HP 8500a printer for sale.

Carl commented on his family's unsuccessful attempts at remote photo printing from an iPhone to a wireless printer. This led to a discussion on use of "Airprint"

Bill Long and Dick Henthorn advised attendees of the creation of the Bowie Seniors Computer Users Yahoo Group. The purpose is to enable members to share information between regular meetings and to provide a means to share photo albums, files and URL's. Participation is voluntary. The Yahoo Group website is at http://tinyurl.com/bsccgroup
